

Parishes of Harden and Wilsden

Newsletter for 9 September 2018

Welcome to church today. We hope and pray that you will enjoy your time here and that you may encounter the presence of the living God. If you are a visitor then the following information may be helpful.

- We have a loop system, if appropriate switch hearing aids to “T”.
- We have large print copies of most worship material – please ask.
- Gluten free wafers are available – please request before the service begins.
- Whatever your tradition, you are welcome to share in Holy Communion.
- Toilet facilities are available including baby changing and disabled facilities.
- We hope you will join us for refreshments after the service.

Please take this sheet home with you!

Bible Course Please could you ensure that you have signed up or let Suzy know if you are interested in attending the Bible Course. Numbers are needed in order to purchase the correct number of course manuals. Donations towards the cost of the manual will be gratefully accepted but are not compulsory (£5).

If you are interested but unable to attend either of the start dates please have a word with Suzy. There is always the possibility of another session if there is enough interest.

Helen Ludkin has, from 1st September, become the administrator for the whole Benefice. It is hoped that this will help us to become a more cohesive unit and further help to unite the four parishes. If you wish to contact her please do so through email – pahardenwilsden@gmail.com or by phone – 07788848830.

St. Saviour's coffee morning Saturday 15th Sept. In addition to home-made cakes, we would welcome contributions of jam, marmalade, chutney and fresh fruit and vegetables for our produce stall. We hope you will join us after a summer break! Coffee or tea and biscuits £1, available from 10a.m.

St. Saviour's and St. Matthew's Mission Support Group invite you to a Coffee Morning and Bring & Buy at St Matthew's on FRIDAY 5th October, 10am to noon. Proceeds to support the church in Sudan as they do their best to provide schools for Christian children and to help displaced people.

Parish Circulation. Thank you to all who sorted, and are delivering, the Parish News Sheets. Pray that those who receive it are drawn to come along to one of our services or activities. There are copies for those who live outside the parish. Mavis and June.

"LB Brass" will be giving a concert at St John's, Cullingworth on Friday 30th November at 7.30, followed by a cheese and wine party. Tickets priced £10 are available from St. John's Church, Hair Flair or any member of the PCC.

First World War Exhibition As part of the local arrangements to mark the centenary of the end of the First World War, St. Matthews has been asked to host an exhibition with an emphasis on the involvement in the war of people from the Bradford area along with people from the Commonwealth and South Asia who may have relatives who live in this area. The exhibition will take place on Friday and Saturday 28th and 29th September and will consist of several display panels and a power point presentation.

Clive Allsop is seeking volunteers to man the exhibition, perhaps for two or three hour stints although the actual start and end times have not yet been decided. Please speak to Clive if you are able to help

The Benefice Harvest Service and Supper is on Sunday the 16th September at 6pm at St. John's, Cullingworth. All are warmly invited. Sign-up sheets are in both churches.
