

Parishes of Harden and Wilsden

Newsletter for 16 September 2018

Welcome to church today. We hope and pray that you will enjoy your time here and that you may encounter the presence of the living God. If you are a visitor then the following information may be helpful.

- We have a loop system, if appropriate switch hearing aids to "T".
- We have large print copies of most worship material – please ask.
- Gluten free wafers are available – please request before the service begins.
- Whatever your tradition, you are welcome to share in Holy Communion.
- Toilet facilities are available including baby changing and disabled facilities.
- We hope you will join us for refreshments after the service.

Please take this sheet home with you!

St Saviour's and St Matthew's Mission Support Group invite you to a Coffee Morning and Bring & Buy at St Matthew's on FRIDAY 5th October, 10am to noon. Proceeds to support the church in Sudan as they do their best to provide schools for Christian children and to help displaced people.

Parish Circulation. Thank you to all who sorted and delivered the Parish News Sheets. Let us be praying that some of those who receive it at drawn to come along to one of our services or activities. There are copies for the information of those who do not live in the Parish. Mavis and June.

As part of the local arrangements to mark the centenary of the First World War, St Matthews has been asked to host an exhibition with an emphasis on the involvement in the war of people from the Bradford area along with people from the Commonwealth and South Asia who may have relatives who live in this area. The exhibition will take place on Friday and Saturday 28th and 29th September and will consist of several display panels and a power point presentation. Clive Allsop is seeking volunteers to man the exhibition, perhaps for two or three hour stints although the actual start and end times have not yet been decided. Please speak to Clive if you are able to help

100 Club Draw winners for August - £25 - 12 - Hazel White; £10 - 4 - Chris Bendle.
